WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.

THE PRESENT CONDITION OF OUR RELATIONS WITH SAN DOMINGO.

The views of Secretary Fish upon the present condition of affairs in San Domingo are not definitely known here, except what has been stated in the Senate and what is generally known to be his opinion. It is understood that he is not in favor of the annexation of San Domingo, and that he will not recommend it in his message. He is not opposed to the acquisition of territory by the United States, but he is opposed to the annexation of San Domingo at present, because he thinks the people are not prepared for it, and that the United States would not be benefited by it. He is also opposed to the annexation of San Domingo because he thinks it would be a violation of the Monroe doctrine, which is to the effect that this country will not interfere with the affairs of any European power, and that no European power shall interfere with the affairs of any country on this continent. Secretary Fish is also opposed to the annexation of San Domingo because he thinks it would be a violation of the principle of non-intervention, which is to the effect that this country will not interfere with the affairs of any country, and that no country shall interfere with the affairs of this country. Secretary Fish will not say in so many words that he is opposed to the annexation of San Domingo, but he will say that he is opposed to the principles involved in the annexation of San Domingo. He will not say that he is opposed to the annexation of San Domingo because he thinks it would be a violation of the principle of non-intervention, but he will say that he is opposed to the principle of non-intervention

THE ERIE RAILWAY STRIKE.

The Breakdown Still On, with no Prospect of Immediate Settlement—Effects of Joint Action Between the New York Trunk Lines—Driving Over the New York Central—The Troubles of the Managers—The Employés Resolved to Stand Out.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Matters in the Erie Railway strike remain in the same condition as they were when reported yesterday morning. Not a wheel has been turned on the road since the strike began, and the prospects are that it will be a long time before it will be. The men are resolved to stand out, and the managers are equally determined to fight it to the bitter end. Both sides are confident of success, and neither will yield an inch. The Company have issued a circular to the effect that they will not receive any freight for Jersey City, and will not run any trains to that point. The men say that they will not allow any freight to be moved, and will stop any train that attempts to do so. The Company have also

THE SCHOOL AFFAIR.

Letters from Dr. Danforth and Mrs. Atkins.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

At a meeting of the Board of Education, held on the evening of Tuesday, October 26, 1869, a report in relation to the Normal School was presented by Mr. Danforth. That report contained a statement of facts which, if true, would, I believe, justify the Board in removing the Principal of the Normal School. Mr. Danforth, in his report, stated that I had been absent from my school for a period of two months, during which time I had received my salary, and that I had been guilty of other acts of neglect and carelessness, which he enumerated. Mr. Danforth also stated that I had been absent from my school on the day of the meeting of the Board, and that I had not given any notice of my intention to be absent
